

Carol's Hungry Mind Cafe's

GOOD MUSE LETTER

The place is bloomin'!

Saturday May 10th

7:30pm

Patti Casey

Her career has taken her to many places along the way : she has appeared live on "A Prairie Home Companion" with Garrison Keillor, has won Texas's prestigious Kerrville Folk Festival New Folk songwriter's competition, and was a winner of the Chris Austin Songwriting Contest at the legendary Merlefest in Wilkesboro, North Carolina. Just a quick look at her calendar tells you that audiences love what Patti is about: honest tales of everyday life and quirky looks at life's intimate details, sung in a voice that doesn't easily compare to others on the scene today. Patti is a master of vocal understatement, simple, pure; like a jazz vocalist whose heart was somehow – for some unknown but wonderful reason – thrown into gospel mode.

Wednesday May 14th 7:00pm

Songwriting

Workshop

Are you a songwriter looking for feedback and/or inspiration? Come meet with other songwriters to play, listen, collaborate and participate in the creative process of songwriting.

This is not a workshop. All who attend will be equal participants.

All genres of songwriting welcome.

Thursday May 15th 7pm

Third Thursday

OPEN MIC

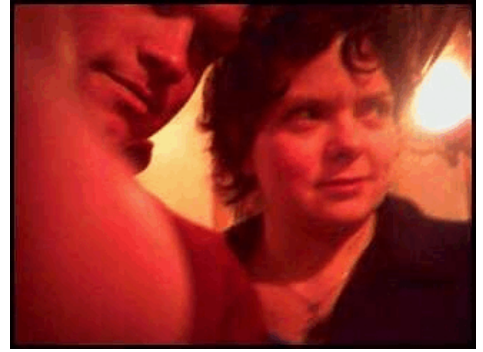

Chuck and Greg always find the most interesting acts.

Musicians will be playing, Dancers will be dancing, Poets will be reciting and Artist's will be showing. Come on down and strut your stuff or just lay back and enjoy! All are welcome.

Saturday May 17th 7:30pm

Soaked

Oats

Folk, Americana and appella duo

A'c

Highly recommended by Pete Sutherland

Friday May 23rdth 7:30PM

GOSHEN RAMBLERS

Ethan West and Mark Daly play acoustic newgrass, blues, and folkrock originals

We'll be waitin' for ya!